Introduction

Spend a week in two of Northern England's most picturesque counties. This walking holiday is all about hiking through the absolute highlights of Northumberland and the English Lake District. You'll visit a roman hillfort built into the line of Hadrian's Wall, and discover the sacked 8th century priory on Lindisfarne. You'll take in sweeping coastal views, and climb the rolling hills of the interior of the county and wander through the gardens of Alnwick Castle before making your way over to the west coast. Once arriving in the Lake District you'll head into the dramatic mountain bowl of the Buttermere Valley; climb to the summit of Cat Bells above the shores of Derwent Water, and discover one of the Lake District's most stunning waterfall, Aira Force.

Is this holiday for you?

This holiday is suitable for fit weekend walkers. We hike at a good pace and you can expect to be out for 6-8 hours a day. You will mostly be on a path but the terrain underfoot may sometimes be rough and boggy, including boulder fields and mountain tops. Some of the daily hikes will involve a mountain ascent of over 500m high. Daily distances will be typically up to 13km but may be longer occasionally. Daily hike details are available in the itinerary. The weather in Northern England can be unpredictable and at times can make activities more challenging.

Itinerary

DAY 1

Meet the group at Penrith Station. Walk a section of Hadrian's Wall and visit Vindolanda.

We meet at the train station in Penrith before transferring to our first destination, Hadrian's Wall, approximately an hour away. Our walk takes in one of the most scenic sections of this ancient Roman structure to eventually reach Vindolanda - one of the best preserved roman fortresses in Britain. After completing our circular walk, we then return to our transfer and on to the Northumberland Coast to settle into our hotel at Bamburgh for the next three nights.

DAY 2

Cross the causeway to explore Lindisfarne. Half day coastal walk on the St Oswald's Way to Bamburgh Castle.

Today is split into two halves depending on tide times. At low tide we'll make the pilgrims crossing to the 7th Century priory on the holy island of Lindisfarne. We'll explore the site of one of the first Viking raids on English soil, and learn how St Cuthbert established this as his home over 1,400 years ago. The other half of the day is spent walking the St Oswald's Way along the sweeping white sands of Bamburgh beach eventually reaching the castle walls that were built to keep guard over this stretch of coastline. Return to our hotel in Bamburgh.

DAY 3

Head into the Cheviots via Wooler, finding Humberton Hill fort and scaling Watch Hill.

We'll start our walk today, after a half hour transfer, in the rural market town of Wooler, soon leaving the streets behind for the northern end of the Cheviot Hills. Comprising grassy tops, swathes of windswept heathland, and steep sided glacial valleys, this corner of the county is a departure from the coastline of yesterday's walks. Humberton Hill is our first target, where a bloody battle took place between the English and the marauding Scots in 1402, the latter being defeated by the superior English long bow. We continue, heading for the craggier top of Watch Hill. Noticeably hillier than the first two days, this route is a proper English hill walk with huge views to boot. Return to our hotel in Bamburgh.

DAY 4

A relaxed day wandering through Alnwick Gardens and Castle, and a trip to the infamous Barter Books.

After three days walking some of the key highlights of this breath taking county, we'll have a more relaxed day in Alnwick. There is no planned walking route today, but plenty of opportunity for sightseeing. After checking out of our hotel in Bamburgh we'll spend the morning discovering Alnwick Castle, home to the Percy family for the majority of the last 950 years. We'll also have time to visit the gardens which surround the castle, highlights including the majestic cascade water fountain, a bamboo labyrinth, and the intriguing poison garden. We'll round out our exploration of Alnwick with a visit to Barter Books, the incredible bookstore seamlessly knitted into the many nooks and crevices of a former train station. In the afternoon we'll board our transfer which will take us across the Pennines to the Lake District and our accommodation in the Borrowdale Valley for the final three nights of our trip.

Several walk choices in the Buttermere Valley, from mountain top summits, to lakeshore wanders.

Today we take a short transfer across Honister Pass through the jaws of the Honister Slate Mine to the stunning mountain bowl of the Buttermere valley. The route will be chosen by our guide based on weather and ground conditions and the desires of the group. A mountainous route will likely include the rocky Scarth Gap Pass, and the summit of Haystacks, one of Alfred Wainwright's favourite fells. A lower level route may take in the lakeshore path, skirting the picture perfect line of scots pines that feature in one of the most photographed views of this corner of the lakes. Round out the day with a pint on one of Buttermere's two excellent pubs if time allows, the perfect end to a day hiking in this spectacular valley. The numbers below denote the highest, furthest option, lesser options would limit the numbers to:

Ascent/Descent: 610m

Distance: 8km

Time: 6 hrs walking

DAY 6

Head out from Keswick to the summit of Catbells and back on the lake cruise launch.

Starting in Keswick, we'll stride out along the lakeshore to reach the foot of Catbells, our summit target for the day. A classic fell walk, this hill combines breathtaking views and rolling cols with steep open fellside and a couple of hand to rock sections. Short in size but mighty in interest, you'll feel like you've been alpine ascending on a micro scale. After topping out and admiring one of Lakeland's most revered views, you'll descend a steadily stepped path back to the lakeshore and board the launch all the way back across Derwentwater to Keswick. Once back in the town you'll have time to potter around the plentiful shops, cafes and pubs or perhaps visit the Moot Hall, the front door providing the start and finish line for the infamous Bob Graham Round fell running challenge. We'll then return to our accommodation in the Borrowdale Valley for our last evening and a celebratory dinner to round off a great week in the North of England.

DAY 7

Ascend Aira Force to Gowbarrow for views of Ullswater and beyond, return to Penrith to depart.

We depart our accommodation and make our way East to Ullswater, the Lake District's second biggest lake, surrounded by some of its highest and more precipitous fells. Our final walk of the week is full of drama, starting out ascending adjacent to Aira Force, a powerful waterfall picking its way through the rocks into a gorge with a teetering pack horse bridge over. We then leave the torrent behind and head for higher ground and the eventual knolly top of Gowbarrow. A smaller fell amongst some mighty neighbours and with the sweep of Ullswater below, this summit is a suitable grand finale view to round out a great week of exploring. We'll enjoy a traditional cream tea at the end of our walk before our final transfer returns us to Penrith station for our onward journey.

The UK has a temperate climate. The weather in the Lake District and Northumberland can be unpredictable and it is not uncommon to experience four seasons in one day at any time of year. As a reputable tour operator, KE supports the British Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office's 'Travel Aware' campaign to enable British citizens to prepare for their journeys overseas. The 'Travel Aware' website provides a single, authoritative source of advice for all kinds of travellers and we recommend that prior to travel, all KE clients visit the official UK Government website at travelaware.campaign.gov.uk and read the FCDO Travel Advice for their chosen destination. North Americans can also check out the U.S. Department of State website: www.travel.state.gov for essential travel advice and tips.

KE treat the safety and security of all clients as the most important aspect of any trip we organise. We would not run any trip that we did not consider reasonably safe. Should the FCDO advise against travel for any reason, we will contact everyone booked to travel to discuss the situation. We receive regular updates direct from the FCDO and are in constant touch with our contacts on the ground. If you have any questions about government travel advice, please call our office.

Single Use Plastic

KE do not encourage the use of single use plastic items. We are ensuring that our agents all over the world are working together to reduce the problem and educate those around them. We are leading by example in our KE office by reducing our plastic use.
