Introduction

We'll spend eleven days exploring many of the fascinating and varied communities and producers Ghana has to offer. From the kente cloth makers at Tafi Abuiife, to the bead makers of Krobo. We will visit industrious fishing communities whose beautiful, salt-crusted fishing boats line the beaches along the coast, and cocoa producers for some of the world's best, and most ethically produced bars of chocolate. In between community visits, we'll walk some of Ghana's most beautiful and wild locations, including the Shai Hills reserve, hoping to spot monkeys and zebra, the Wli and Ote waterfalls, with thousands of butterflies fluttering through the canopy surrounding each cascade, and Bonkro where the mythical and beautiful yellow-headed Picathartes resides. This trip includes walks to the highest point in Ghana, Mount Afojato, and along the pristine beaches of its wild Atlantic coast, dotted with colonial castles with links to some of the British empire's darkest times. This diverse and wild adventure will leave you with lasting memories of a fascinating country, the jewel in West Africa's crown.

Is this holiday for you?

A walking holiday with plenty of opportunity to immerse yourself in the diverse wildlife, cultures and producers of Ghana. The walks are a mix of short but sharp hill-climbs and longer but flatter forest and coastal walks, often interspersed with a community visit or wildlife-watching opportunity, so will include plenty of stops. It will be hot and usually humid, with fresher but hotter air by the coast. We are travelling in the dry season, so will be on good tracks where walking boots or good grip trail shoes will cope with conditions underfoot.

Meal Plan

All meals included throughout.

Food & Water

It is not recommended to drink untreated water from the taps. If you are on a trekking or cycling holiday, water is supplied to fill up your individual bottles. This will be boiled, filtered or provided in large jerry cans or 5 litre bottles. Additionally you should take purification tablets or a filter bottle (such as a Water-To-Go bottle) to treat your water when in towns or where water is not supplied. We do not encourage the purchasing of single use plastic bottles.

There is a great variety in Ghanaian cuisine, but most dishes are centred around a starchy staple such as fufu and banku, as well as kenkey. Common proteins include goat and chicken, and as you reach the Volta lake region, and coastal regions you'll find more seafood on the menu, including tilapia, and octopus. Jollof rice is a common fixture on many menus, as it is all over western Africa, and fried plantain and onion and tomato based salads are common sides.

Breakfasts at the hotels will include regular western continental staples, but you may also have waakye, a rice and beans dish, with sides of egg or a spicy pepper sauce known as shito.

Special Diets

Whilst we can cater for vegetarians, albeit sometimes with a more limited choice, we cannot always provide special diets. Due to the nature of some of the trips that we operate and the countries in which we operate them, it can be very hard (and sometimes impossible) to cater for a wide range of dietary choices and you may have to supplement your diet with food/snacks from home. If you have specific dietary requirements please do speak to our sales team and they will be able to advise you whether or not we will be able to offer your specific choice. Please note that we are unable to provide separate menus and cannot accept liability for any problems arising from special dietary requirements or intolerances.

Accommodation

For the majority of this trip we will be staying in comfortable, established and often independent hotels, often with pools on a half board basis. For the two nights in Bonkro village, we will stay at a basic but functional guesthouse within the village, and in Kumasi we spend a night in a lodge. These will also be half board.

Group Leader & Support Staff

The group will be led by a professional and qualified tour leader.

Spending Money

The currency in Ghana is the Ghanaian Cedi (GHS) and is used throughout Ghana. You will be able to change your own currency at the airport arrivals lounge, or if you can, change your money before you arrive. Most local payments and entry fees are included in the price of your trip, but you may still wish to contribute towards a tip for your guides at the end of the tour, plus spending money for souvenirs, and any optional activities, soft or alcoholic drinks and snacks throughout the trip. We would recommend the equivalent of around £250 for the above, in Cedi. In the cities and towns there may be opportunities to spend on card, but do not rely on this, as many smaller locations and villages will likely be cash only, and most places will only accept Cedi.

Guidance on Tipping

On this trip it is considered regular practice to tip your local guides and drivers if you are happy with the services provided. You will be expected to do this at the end of your trip.

We suggest you co-ordinate these tips as a group and as a rough guide we recommend each group member contributes the equivalent in Cedi of around £60 - 80 per person. The group should determine the exact amount and the guide will give advice on the appropriate levels.

Baggage Allowance

For this holiday you should take one piece of luggage, which should be a large capacity soft sided kit bag, and a daypack. For international flights please check your baggage allowance with your airline.

Group Size & Holiday Status

For each holiday there is a minimum number of participants required to enable it to go ahead. Once the minimum number is reached, the trip status will change from 'Available' to 'Guaranteed to run'. You can check the trip status for each departure in the 'Dates and Prices' table. Other than in exceptional circumstances, we will not cancel a trip once it has achieved this guaranteed to run status so you are free to proceed with your international flight booking and other travel arrangements.

General Information

Passport & Visas

The information that we provide is for UK passport holders. A passport with 6 months remaining validity at the end of your stay is generally required, and you should have at least 2 blank pages for each country that you visit.

It is your responsibility to ensure that you have the correct travel documents and visas for your holiday. Please ensure that you check for the latest advice before travel. For the most up to date information on entry requirements, please visit the UK Government website.

You will need a visa for travel to Ghana and this should be applied for via the links available on the Ghana page of the FCDO advice link given above under 'entry requirements,' no later than 4 weeks before you travel.

Health & Vaccinations

If you have a severe allergy please inform the KE office before you travel. We will do all we can to help, but we cannot guarantee an allergy free environment on KE trips. You will need to carry your own treatment for the allergy with you, as 'adrenaline auto-injectors' are not carried as standard by KE leaders and staff. You should inform your leader on arrival of your allergy, and let them know where you keep your adrenaline pen.

VACCINATIONS

You should contact your doctor or travel clinic to check whether you specific require any vaccinations or other preventive measures. You should be up to date with routine courses and boosters as recommended in the UK e.g. diphtheria-tetanus-polio and measles-mumps-rubella), along with hepatitis A and typhoid. Malarial prophylaxis are required. A certificate of yellow fever vaccination is required if travelling from countries with risk of yellow fever transmission and for travellers having transited for more than 12 hrs through an airport of a country with risk of yellow fever transmission. On holidays to more remote areas you should also have a dentist check up. A good online resource is Travel Health Pro.

Currency

The local currency in Ghana is the Cedi (GHs). Sub currency is Pesewas (Gp). One Cedi is divided into one hundred Pesewas.

Climate

Ghana is a tropical nation, and as such remains warm and humid all year round. In the capital, Accra, the temperature hovers between 25 to 30 degrees throughout the year. Inland, it is warmer, and can often reach 35 degrees centigrade, but in the hills, and around the lake in the Volta region, there will likely be more wind, so it may well feel a few degrees cooler.

Travel Aware

As a reputable tour operator, KE supports the British Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office's 'Travel Aware' campaign to enable British citizens to prepare for their journeys overseas. The 'Travel Aware' website provides a single, authoritative source of advice for all kinds of travellers and we recommend that before travel, all KE clients visit the official UK Government website at travelaware.campaign.gov.uk and read the FCDO Travel Advice for their chosen destination. North Americans can also check out the U.S. Department of State website: www.travel.state.gov for essential travel advice and tips.

KE treat the safety and security of all clients as the most important aspect of any trip we organise. We would not run any trip that we did not consider reasonably safe. Should the FCDO advise against travel for any reason, we will contact everyone booked to travel to discuss the situation. We receive regular updates directly from the FCDO and are in constant touch with our contacts on the ground. If you have any questions about government travel advice, please call our office.

Single Use Plastic

KE do not encourage the use of single use plastic items. We are ensuring that our agents all over the world are working together to reduce the problem and educate those around them. We are leading by example in our KE office by reducing our plastic use.

Travel Insurance

It is an essential condition of joining a holiday with KE Adventure Travel that you have a valid travel insurance policy to cover the cost of medical treatment and to protect the value of your holiday in the event of cancellation. When taking out insurance please ensure the policy you choose covers you for the activities and altitude included in your itinerary.

For appropriate insurance cover we recommend Campbell Irvine Direct. Please go to our Travel Insurance page for further information and to get a quote.
