Introduction

This trip is an explosion of Istrian culture for you to enjoy. This northwestern peninsula of Croatia offers surprises at every turn: scenic towns rise up from the hills, with cobblestone streets playing host to a languorous Mediterranean life, overlooking sun-drenched vineyards and rows of spindly olive trees, while the sun soaked coastal towns offer opulence and charm to rival the French and Italian Riviera's. On this one week self-guided cycling tour you will cycle through the magnificent vineyards of Buje, sample the famed truffles of Motovun first hand, and discover the rich cultural history of Porec. Ending your trip getting lost in the magnificence of Rovinj, the Pearl of the Adriatic, where you can toast to fantastic week of cycling.

Each day you will cycle approximately 35 to 55km through landscapes of hills framed by rivers and through vineyards and olive groves with plenty of sights to hop off and enjoy along the way too. Staying in a fabulous selection of small 3* and 4 * hotels as you go, you can be sure of a warm welcome and a comfortable place to rest your head each night. Not to mention being on a bed and breakfast basis means you can enjoy the many fantastic restaurants the region has to offer each evening. We recommend you order the Fuzi tartufima- yum!

Is this holiday for you?

If you love the peace of the countryside and the opulence of Venice then you will fall in love with Istria. Food & Water

Many places on this holiday have drinkable water from the tap to fill your personal water bottles. Please check with the leader at the various locations. We do not encourage the purchasing of single use plastic bottles.

Croatian cuisine is heavily influenced by flavours from Central Europe and the Mediterranean, namely its close proximity with Italy, meaning there is something to tantalise everyone's taste buds. Due to its close proximity to Italy there are few towns on the coast without a pizzeria, whilst seafood is extremely popular thanks to the country's vast coastline providing a bounty of fresh seafood. You can look forward to tasty stews, goulashes, pasta dishes and plenty of fresh salads too.

Istria is famed for its truffles with most dishes incorporating some element of truffle such as Fuzi tartufima, a truffle pasta dish. Other Istrian specialities include Istraska jota, a hearty pork stew, perfect after a busy day exploring.

If, like us at KE you have a sweet tooth, you can also look forward to fritule, a small doughnut-like treat, with your coffee or perhaps a kremsnita, a tasty custard and vanilla cake. After all, part of the fun of a self-guided trip is stopping for tasty delights whenever you wish.

Accommodation

For this trip we have hand-picked a great selection of small 3 and 4 star hotel, many with traditional Istrian style to help submerge you into the fantastic culture of this region. All have been chosen for their great locations and warm hospitality to help you unwind at the end of a busy day exploring. The hotels all offer a great breakfast buffet to fuel you for the day ahead and rooms are on a double or twin basis.

It is possible to arrange additional nights' accommodation if you would like to enjoy this magnificent region a little longer. Please refer to the dates and prices tab for further details or speak to one of our sales team.

During high season you may be booked into an alternative accommodation of a similar standard in the area.

Health & Vaccinations

Vaccinations

You should contact your doctor or travel clinic to check whether you require any specific vaccinations.

GHIC / Medical cover

UK residents should carry a free Global Health Insurance Card (GHIC). This entitles you to state provided medical treatment when you're visiting an EU country or Switzerland. This is not a substitute for medical travel insurance which is vital when travelling overseas.

Severe Allergies

Please inform our KE Sales and support team of any severe allergies you may have before travel. We will always do our best to help but we are unable to guarantee an allergy free environment on our KE trips. We advise that you always carry your own treatment for the allergy with you such as 'adrenaline auto-injectors' if required. We also recommend that you discuss this with your accommodation on arrival so that they can better assist you.

Currency

The unit of currency in Croatia is the euro.

Preparing for your Holiday

The advantage of a self-guided cycling holiday is that you decide the pace. Having said this it is always sensible to get some additional exercise before going on an active holiday. After all, the fitter you are the more enjoyable your cycling will be. You should be comfortable with cycling 35 to 55km and up to 700m ascent a day on quiet country lanes and roads. We advise you to dust off your bike and head out on a few rides before your holiday to help make your holiday more enjoyable. We also offer e-bike upgrades for those seeking to make the journey more leisurely.

Climate

Croatia has a mostly dry climate, with a wonderful Mediterranean influence on the Adriatic coast and islands. The Istrian region provides perfect temperatures for cycling with averages of 20°C to 25°C through spring and autumn, mild winters and warm summers. Of course nowhere is without rain from time to time and December is the wettest month.

Travel Aware

As a reputable tour operator, KE supports the British Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office's 'Travel Aware' campaign to enable British citizens to prepare for their journeys overseas. The 'Travel Aware' website provides a single, authoritative source of advice for all kinds of travellers and we recommend that prior to travel, all KE clients visit the official UK Government website at travelaware.campaign.gov.uk and read the FCDO Travel Advice for their chosen destination. North Americans can also check out the U.S. Department of State website: www.travel.state.gov for essential travel advice and tips.

KE treat the safety and security of all clients as the most important aspect of any trip we organise. We would not run any trip that we did not consider reasonably safe. Should the FCDO advise against travel for any reason, we will contact everyone booked to travel to discuss the situation. We receive regular updates direct from the FCDO and are in constant touch with our contacts on the ground. If you have any questions about government travel advice, please call our office.

Single Use Plastic

KE do not encourage the use of single use plastic items. We are ensuring that our agents all over the world are working together to reduce the problem and educate those around them. We are leading by example in our KE office by reducing our plastic use.

Travel Insurance

It is an essential condition of joining a holiday with KE Adventure Travel that you have a valid travel insurance policy to cover the cost of medical treatment and to protect the value of your holiday in the event of cancellation. When taking out insurance please ensure the policy you choose covers you for the activities and altitude included in your itinerary.

For appropriate insurance cover we recommend Campbell Irvine Direct. Please go to our Travel Insurance page for further information and to get a quote.
