Your Self-Guided Pack & Route Notes

Each self-guided holiday comes with comprehensive route notes and a map or pocket guidebook of the area you are exploring. The route notes contain information about the places you will visit and the local transport you might need, along with the detailed route notes for your daily walks or cycle rides. We even include some tips for the best places to stop for lunch.

You can expect to receive your Self-Guided Pack containing your route notes, a map or guidebook, and all your relevant documents, no later than 3 weeks before your holiday start-date. We will send your documents using a signed-for courier so that you can track your package and know that it is safely on its way to you. For bookings of more than 4 people we will send an additional Self-Guided Pack. If you do not need this additional pack please inform our Sales Team. Your pack will be sent to the lead booker, so please remind them to pack it before setting off.

Should your self-guided trip be part of a longer adventure requiring you to leave home more than three weeks before your holiday start-date, please inform our Sales Team so that we can make alternative delivery arrangements.

Self-Guided Families

Our Self-Guided Holidays are perfect for your next family holiday and are suitable for children of all ages.

Our partner hotels and accommodations are able to provide cots for young children, and some offer family rooms. We can also arrange hire of children's bikes and tag along bikes for most of our self-guided cycling trips and with trips such as Lake Constance and the Danube offering routes on designated cycle paths you can rest assured in keeping your family safe.

As a parent we trust that you know your own child's capabilities, so please read the itinerary details to ensure the distances covered each day are suitable for your family. If this is a first time walking or cycling holiday for your family, a centre-based trip is a fantastic option as it allows you to easily opt out of a day's walking if a day of building sand castles, swimming in the pool, or visiting museums is calling instead.

Please discuss this further with our Sales Team who will be happy to assist in picking the best trip for your family.

Joining Arrangements & Transfers

This trip starts and ends at Dubrovnik Airport. All of our self-guided holidays are sold on a Land Only basis, allowing you the flexibility to choose the travel method that best suits you. For this trip we have included a return transfer for you from Dubrovnik Airport, which offers great connections from regional UK airports.

Meal Plan

This trip is on a bed and breakfast basis to allow you the most flexibility during your holiday.

Food & Water

Water from the taps is perfectly drinkable on this holiday - please use this to fill your personal bottles for your daily activities. We do not encourage the purchase of single-use plastic bottles.

As you might expect, cuisine on the Dalmatian coast has quite a Mediterranean feel, with strong influences from Greece and Italy - especially Venice. Our mouths are watering already! Following peasant cooking traditions, good quality local ingredients such as vegetables, nuts, cereals, dairy products, and meat and fish, are cooked in simple yet imaginative ways to produce delicious meals. Home-made pasta, gnocchi (Njoki), risotto (Rizot), and polenta (Palenta) dishes served with fresh local produce, focaccia (Pogaca), and a dried meat rather like prosciutto (Prsut), all display the Italian influence, as does the use of local olive oil and herbs and spices such as oregano, bay, sage, rosemary, marjoram, nutmeg, cinnamon, cloves and the rinds of oranges and lemons. The aromas alone are food for the senses!

Being so close to the catch of excellent seafood from the Adriatic, this really is the place to enjoy fish and seafood dishes. Perhaps you'll enjoy a tasty fish stew (Brudet if you like it spicier, or Popara for a milder flavour) with a lovely chilled glass of local white wine? If seafood really is your thing then be sure to try the internationally acclaimed Ston Bay oysters, widely agreed to be amongst the best in the world. You can hardly get them any fresher, coming straight from the sea to your table. Oysters have been farmed here since the 17th century and are at their best when eaten raw on ice in their shells, drizzled with a few drops of lemon juice. They are especially good when washed down with a glass of local sparkling or white wine. If oysters are a step too far for you, the mussels around this coast are also exquisite, so order Buzara instead. If the more unusual appeals to you, why not try a black risotto (Crni Rizot). Common and well loved throughout Croatia, you are perfectly placed on the coast to sample this dish of rice cooked with olive oil, herbs, spices and locally caught cuttlefish - the ink from which gives the dish its dark inky colour. Cheese fans won't be disappointed either, with some lovely creamy goats cheeses produced in the region too.

Those with a sweet tooth will be in their element as there are plenty of interesting desserts and other delights to enjoy as you fuel your adventures. Rozata is not to be missed - a dessert likened to a Dalmatian version of creme caramel or flan made using rose water instead. Other tempting delights include Mantala - a cake from Konavle made with red grape must from a local grape variety, cloves, cinnamon, and nutmeg. For something fruity you might like Arancini - this one isn't at all like rice balls of the same name found in Italy - here it is a fragrant snack made from sugared orange or lemon peel. Or, how about Klasuni - moon-shaped cookies from Korcula filled with a nut, orange marmalade and rosewater paste. This is only a snapshot - why not visit the area and experience the region's flavours yourself?

Special Diets

Whilst we can cater for vegetarians, albeit sometimes with a more limited choice, we cannot always provide for special diets. Due to the nature of some of the trips that we operate and the countries in which we operate them, it can be very hard (and sometimes impossible) to cater for a wide range of dietary choices and you may have to supplement your meals with food/snacks from home. If you have specific dietary requirements please do speak to our sales team and they will be able to advise you whether or not we will be able to offer your specific choice. Please note that we are unable to provide separate menus and cannot accept liability for any problems arising from special dietary requirements or intolerances.

Accommodation

We have especially chosen a lovely selection of small, family run 2-star and 3-star guesthouses and hotels for their great locations and warm hospitality. All the accommodations offer comfortable ensuite bedrooms and atmospheric communal areas including a bar, gardens or a terrace, and offer delicious breakfasts to help fuel your days of exploring. In the evenings you can look forward to enjoying dinner out at one of the nearby restaurants.

It is possible to arrange additional nights' accommodation before or after your trip, either in Ston, Konavle, or Dubrovnik. So if you wish to have a little more time relaxing on the coast or exploring the city, please just ask our Sales Team for more information.

Baggage Allowance

You and your main luggage will be transferred between each of your hotels according to the daily itinerary described. We ask that you please ensure that each piece of your luggage is under 20kg. You will also need a daypack to carry your daily essentials with you while you are walking.

The information that we provide is for UK passport holders.

A passport with 6 months remaining validity at the end of your stay is generally required, and you should have at least 2 blank pages for each country that you visit.

For other nationalities, please refer to your own Government website for the latest information.

It is your responsibility to ensure that you have the correct travel documents including vaccinations and health certificates (see Health & Vaccinations below), and visas for your holiday. Health & Vaccinations

Severe Allergies

Please inform our KE Sales and Support team of any severe allergies you may have before travel. We will always do our best to help but we are unable to guarantee an allergy free environment on our KE trips. We advise that you always carry your own treatment for the allergy with you such as 'adrenaline auto-injectors' if required. We also recommend that you discuss this with your accommodation on arrival so that they can better assist you.

Preparing for your Holiday

The advantage of a self-guided walking holiday is that you decide the pace however getting some additional exercise before coming on an active holiday makes a lot of sense. The fitter you are, after all, the more enjoyable your walks will be. The walks take you through shaded woodlands, along beautiful coastal paths and country dirt roads. You should be comfortable with walking 3 to 4 hours for consecutive days with ascents up to 400m per day. We suggest that you try to fit in a number of daily walks in hilly countryside before your trip and it's always a good idea to spend some time walking in the footwear you are going to use on this holiday.

Climate

Thanks to the influence of the Mediterranean, Croatia's Adriatic coast and islands have a mostly dry climate with warm dry summers and mild winters, making this region an excellent place to explore on foot. The hottest months are June, July, and August when temperatures can reach up to 30 degrees centigrade, ideal if you like the heat yet rarely feeling 'too hot'. Spring and autumn are perhaps best for walking, with milder temperatures averaging around 20 degrees centigrade.

Travel Aware

As a reputable tour operator, KE supports the British Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office's 'Travel Aware' campaign to enable British citizens to prepare for their journeys overseas. The 'Travel Aware' website provides a single, authoritative source of advice for all kinds of travellers and we recommend that before travel, all KE clients visit the official UK Government website at travelaware.campaign.gov.uk and read the FCDO Travel Advice for their chosen destination. North Americans can also check out the U.S. Department of State website: www.travel.state.gov for essential travel advice and tips.

KE treat the safety and security of all clients as the most important aspect of any trip we organise. We would not run any trip that we did not consider reasonably safe. Should the FCDO advise against travel for any reason, we will contact everyone booked to travel to discuss the situation. We receive regular updates directly from the FCDO and are in constant touch with our contacts on the ground. If you have any questions about government travel advice, please call our office.

Single Use Plastic

KE do not encourage the use of single use plastic items. We are ensuring that our agents all over the world are working together to reduce the problem and educate those around them. We are leading by example in our KE office by reducing our plastic use.

Books

- Dubrovnik and the Dalmation Coast - Lonely Planet
- Game of thrones fans will no doubt recognise landmarks in Dubrovnik where many scenes were filmed.

It is an essential condition of joining a holiday with KE Adventure Travel that you have a valid travel insurance policy to cover the cost of medical treatment and to protect the value of your holiday in the event of cancellation. When taking out insurance please ensure the policy you choose covers you for the activities and altitude included in your itinerary.
