Introduction

The hidden gem that is Albania is a fascinating country with so much to offer to the discerning traveller. Endowed with an incredible coastline on both the Adriatic and Ionian Seas, along with wild and untamed mountain ranges, this welcoming and emerging destination is calling for you to discover. On this one week self-guided walking holiday, you will immerse yourself into the south coast of Albania where the “thunder-split” peaks of the Ceraunian Mountains rise from the Ionian Sea.

Your holiday starts on your arrival to Tirana Airport, where you will be met and transferred to the coastal south of Albania. Here you will experience a wonderful juxtaposition of the sumptuous coastal Riviera with the rocky trails of the Karaburun Peninsula and the lush green heights of Llogara National Park. Your day walks on the Albanian Riviera will take you on sections of the Southern Coastal Trail, hiking between rocky coves and beautiful bays with sparkling turquoise waters, and off the beaten track into the foothills of the Ceraunian mountain range that emerges from the Ionian Sea. Along the way you will discover not only the picture-postcard azure beaches, but also the rich cultural heritage and culinary traditions of the region. You will also have the pleasure of Albanian hospitality and support local businesses by staying in hand-selected family-run guesthouses and small hotels. Ending your holiday with a final night in Tirana, you will have the opportunity to delve into this lively and colourful city, taking in the atmosphere at Skanderbeg Square, admire the historic Et’hem Bey Mosque, and perhaps pay an eye-opening visit to the National History Museum.

Is this holiday for you?

This holiday is perfect for those looking to experience a hidden gem on foot at your own pace, with the ease and assurance of transfers to/from each day’s walk arranged for you. Albania is an emerging destination and this is a great option to discover some wonderful walking while avoiding the crowds.

This holiday comprises of day walks; you will walk 3-5 hours each day with around 500m of average daily ascent/descent. The nature of the terrain on the coast and in the mountains means that trails are often narrow and uneven, and sometimes steep and rocky. Trails are waymarked and on the whole are easy to follow, though some trails may be less defined. While there is no official trail maintenance, the trails are well-trodden and have been used by people or animals for years. A small handheld GPS device is provided locally for additional confidence and assistance with route finding on your walks.

You will stay in carefully selected simple hotels or comfortable family-run guesthouses, always in rooms with private bathrooms. There will be plenty of opportunities for swimming in the Ionian Sea so don't forget to pack your swimsuit and towel.

Self-Guided Families

Our Self-Guided Holidays are perfect for your next family holiday and are suitable for children of all ages.

Our partner hotels and accommodations are able to provide cots for young children, and some offer family rooms. We can also arrange hire of children's bikes and tag along bikes for most of our self-guided cycling trips and with trips such as Lake Constance and the Danube offering routes on designated cycle paths you can rest assured in keeping your family safe.

As a parent we trust that you know your own child's capabilities, so please read the itinerary details to ensure the distances covered each day are suitable for your family. If this is a first time walking holiday for your family, a centre based trip is a fantastic option as it allows you to easily opt out of a days walking if a day of building sand castles, swimming in the pool or visiting museums is calling instead.

Please discuss this further with our sales team who will be happy to assist in picking the best trip for your family.

With a mix of Balkan, Greek and Italian influences, Albania offers a rich variety of dishes with a Mediterranean flair, utilising the seasonal produce of the region. In the mountains, you can expect hearty meat dishes such as stews or grilled meats, typically with lamb. A national specialty to try is Tave Kosi, a baked casserole of lamb, yoghurt, eggs and rice. The popular side dish of stuffed peppers filled with rice and herbs, or even meat or cheese are delicious. At the coast there will be plenty of excellent seafood options, with freshly caught fish such as bream, sea bass, octopus, squid, shrimp and so on. With the Italian influence you can also expect pasta and pizza to be readily available, plus coffee is a way of life. While in Albania, you should try the Byrek, a popular snack of filled filo pastry. Meat-free dishes are also readily available, with grilled or baked vegetables, cheese dishes, soups and salads.

To satisfy your sweet tooth, make sure you sample some baklava with layers of thin filo, honey and nuts; or a variation with shredded filo called kadaif. Fried dough balls called petulla are a popular snack any time of day, with a variety of toppings such as chocolate, jam, honey or cheese.

In hotels breakfast are continental style, with cereals, bread and jam, meat, cheese, tea, coffee and sometimes eggs and fruit. You may also have the chance to try a more traditional Albanian breakfast of flavoured rice.

If you would like to sample some locally-produced drinks, Albania produces lagers and wines, or you might also like to brave the strong grape liquor known as raki. These can be purchased from most hotels and shops along the way.

Accommodation

On this holiday, you will stay in a selection of small, comfortable hotels and family-run guesthouses, all with WiFi connectivity. All accommodations are booked in twin or double rooms with private bathrooms, on a bed and breakfast basis. In Llogara, you will stay at a simple and welcoming mountain inn with a popular restaurant serving up traditional Albanian fare. Located in the heart of the National Park and surrounded by natural woodland, the hiking trails are practically on the hotel doorstep.

In Tirana, you will stay at a centrally-located hotel in the city, a great spot from which to explore on foot with some the most popular attractions of Tirana within walking distance.

GHIC / Medical cover

UK residents should carry a free Global Health Insurance Card (GHIC). This entitles you to state provided medical treatment when you're visiting an EU country or Switzerland. This is not a substitute for medical travel insurance which is vital when travelling overseas.

Severe Allergies

Please inform our KE Sales and support team of any severe allergies you may have before travel. We will always do our best to help but we are unable to guarantee an allergy free environment on our KE trips. We advise that you always carry your own treatment for the allergy with you such as 'adrenaline auto-injectors' if required. We also recommend that you discuss this with your accommodation on arrival so that they can better assist you.

Currency

The unit of currency in Albania is the Lek.

Preparing for your Holiday

The advantage of a self-guided walking holiday is that you decide the pace however, getting some additional exercise before coming on an active holiday makes a lot of sense. The fitter you are, after all, the more enjoyable your walks will be. You should be comfortable with walking 4 to 5 hours for consecutive days. We suggest that you try to fit in a number of daily walks in hilly countryside before your trip and it is always a good idea to spend some time walking in the footwear you are going to use on this holiday.

Climate

Albania has a Mediterranean climate which varies by region. Coastal areas experience mild, wet winters and hot, dry summers, with temperatures reaching highs of 35-40 °C in July and August. Spring and autumn brings a moderate climate with temperatures reaching daytime highs of 22-26 °C, which are more comfortable for a walking holiday, hence this holiday is not offered in the summer. Flowers are in bloom in the spring, while the Ionian Sea is delightfully warm in the autumn. Mountainous regions such as Llogara feel cooler, with temperatures between 15-19 °C in spring and autumn, and can experience alpine microclimates with strong winds. While Albania enjoys a great deal of sunshine, rain can be expected at any time of the year particularly in mountainous regions, so you should always be prepared for all eventualities.

Those choosing to travel in November should be aware that the clocks go back an hour at the end of October. As such, the day will be an hour shorter in November, with the sun setting soon after 4pm. We recommend that walks should be planned accordingly to maximise the available daylight later in the year.

Travel Aware

As a reputable tour operator, KE supports the British Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office's 'Travel Aware' campaign to enable British citizens to prepare for their journeys overseas. The 'Travel Aware' website provides a single, authoritative source of advice for all kinds of travellers and we recommend that before travel, all KE clients visit the official UK Government website at travelaware.campaign.gov.uk and read the FCDO Travel Advice for their chosen destination. North Americans can also check out the U.S. Department of State website: www.travel.state.gov for essential travel advice and tips.

KE treat the safety and security of all clients as the most important aspect of any trip we organise. We would not run any trip that we did not consider reasonably safe. Should the FCDO advise against travel for any reason, we will contact everyone booked to travel to discuss the situation. We receive regular updates directly from the FCDO and are in constant touch with our contacts on the ground. If you have any questions about government travel advice, please call our office.
